

ENGAGEMENT FEE AGREEMENT

The undersigned Client hereby employs and retains the law firm of Denise A. Hirschmann, P.C., (hereinafter Attorney) to represent Client in the following matter:

Under the following terms and conditions:
In consideration of the firm, Denise A. Hirschmann, P.C., agreeing to represent Client:

Prior to commencement of legal work, Client fee shall be payable as follows:

Engagement Fee - _____

Client understands that NO PORTION of the minimum Engagement Fee is REFUNDABLE at any time and that the Attorney shall not perform any work prior to receipt of the minimum Engagement Fee. The Engagement Fee represents more than a fee. It is an amount paid to retain the attorney based on her experience in this area of the law. It also guarantees that the time will be set aside in her schedule for your case, thus limiting the number of new clients that could have otherwise been allowed to retain her services.

There may be occasions when another attorney may need to appear on a matter for the client. No representations have been made that only the named firm attorney will appear and the firm is left with the discretion of sending another attorney as needed and as seen fit by the firm.

Once the original Engagement Fee is exhausted, no further work will be performed without immediate payment of another Engagement Fee of at least the original amount of the Engagement Fee or an amount set by Attorney. You will be notified if the retainer amount is depreciated to less than half the original amount and based on the work yet to be done on your there is a need to pay another retainer to secure my services. The amount requested combined with the amount left on your retainer will not exceed the amount of the original retainer without written agreement between the client and attorney. We will not go to Trial, an Evidentiary Hearing, Binding Arbitration, etc., without the current balance owed being paid in full and/or a new Engagement Fee being paid.

If any amount is paid by credit card there will be a 2% surcharge added to cover the processing of your account.

Fees are and will be based upon hourly rates of the members of the Firm for services rendered by them. At the present time, the Attorney primarily responsible for your work is billed at $285.00 per hour for legal work.

The following services shall be billed at the following rates:

- a. Telephonic communications, either received or sent, shall be billed at a minimum rate of one quarter of an hour.
- b. Written communications, either received or sent, shall be billed at a minimum rate of one quarter of an hour.
- c. Court appearances shall be billed at a minimum of two hours.

In the event that the combined Attorneys, Paralegal and Law Clerk time shall exceed the minimum fee, Client agrees to pay for such excess time at the rate set forth in the paragraph above.

The Attorney agrees to diligently undertake representation of the Client in this matter and to perform all services, which in the Attorney's professional judgment are in the best interest of the Client.

Client further agrees to reimburse Attorney for all Court costs and other expenses advanced by Attorney in connection with Client's case.

These costs and expenses include, but are not limited to: those involved in filing fees, Court costs, postage, copies at $.20 a copy, telephone and travel expenses at $.35 a mile, amounts paid to experts, the expense of depositions, transcripts and records, investigative and hourly legal assistant costs, and any other costs Attorney deems necessary to properly prepare and pursue Client's case.

We cannot tell you in advance how much the costs will be. A family law or criminal proceeding may become more complicated than it first appears and the time and effort spent will depend in part, on the cooperation of you, your spouse and your spouses Attorney. We will do everything within our power to keep the fees and costs as low as possible.

Regardless of any other provisions of this Agreement permitting deferred payment, expenses under this paragraph will be billed and must be paid by the client as actually incurred. The client agrees that any fees owed to the Firm are due as of the billing date and must be paid within thirty (30) days after the billing date for services performed. Thirty (30) days after the date of accrual of any charges on the client's account, a finance charge, as a time price differential, computed by applying a monthly periodic rate or rates to the "amount due" as shown on a monthly statement to be sent to the Client, will be added. The monthly periodic rate will be 1%, resulting in a corresponding annual percentage rate of 7%, with a minimum finance charge of $.50 per monthly billing cycle. Any returned check shall require repayment of the bank fee and a $50.00 administrative fee, and will require that all future payments be made in cash, certified check or money order. If repayment is not made within ten (10) days of notice to the Client, then the Attorney shall have the right to withdraw and to seek any legal means necessary to recover the outstanding debt.

Any questions and or objections to any bill rendered by the attorney to the client must be made within fourteen (14) days of the billing date. If the client does not question or object to a bill or statement within fourteen (14) days of the billing date, the bill or statement will be deemed to be accurate and correct and fully due and payable.

The Client understands and agrees that time is of the essence regarding payment of any fees, costs or expenses in this matter. In the event Client fails to pay any monthly statement within thirty (30) days of the date mailed, Attorney shall have the option to withdraw from the case and proceed against Client for all outstanding charges. Client shall be liable for all amounts due plus interest and reasonable attorney fees.

The attorney will have a lien on any and all property, including money and personal and legal documents of the client, that are in the possession of the attorney or in a Judgment, fund, or asset of the estate obtained through the effort of the attorney until the full sums due and owing to the attorney under the terms of this Agreement are paid. The client agrees to execute the necessary documents to effectuate this lien.

If at any time you feel there is a problem in your representation or in our working relationship, you may ask for a problem consultation with the attorney. Cooperation and trust between client and attorneys is essential. Therefore, we will work with you to ensure a healthy working relationship through the completion of our matter, if at all possible. The attorney may also request problem consultations. Whether you or the attorney requests a problem consultation, there will be no fees for the problem consultation. However, we ask that the discussion of the problem consultation be kept to what the problem is and how to render the situation. If you and I agree that the consultation has resolved the difficulties and the discussion could progress to substantive or procedural issues in your matter, I will charge our customary fees from that point forward.

You agree to keep the Firm advised of changes in phone numbers and address and/or any significant changes in your situation while you are working with the Firm.

On Domestic Matters, the Firm may perform an internal appraisal of your anticipated child support or spousal support, or of the value of a pension asset, using computer software available to the Firm. You will receive this data for informal planning purposes only. The Firm will accept no liability for their use in settlement negotiations or otherwise. The printouts of these calculations will be shared with you. If you decide to do so, the printouts may be used for negotiation. These printouts are not admissible in Court. If negotiations fail, formal evaluations will be necessary.

Unless a separate contract for legal services is negotiated, it is understood that these services do not include appeals or any Motions after entry of the Judgment or representation on any different subject matter.
